INSPECTORS

Captain J.T. Hazard, District Inspector CCC, and Mr. E. W. Field, District Educational Adviser, inspected camp on Wednesday February 15th.

CAMP IMPROVEMENT

A five--foot extension has been added to the camp Bath-House this annex will be used for a clothes washing room.

Lieut. Yeaton

1st. Lieut. Lloyd F. Yeaton, Q.M.-Res., is to be transferred to Fort Douglas Headquarters on February 23rd.

The members of the company extend him every wish for success and happiness at his new post.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following named enrollees were admitted to the camp infirmary during the month: Joe Sanders Charles Morgan.

Oresta Jordon underwent an appendectomy at the Heber Hospital.

MEMBERS LEAVING

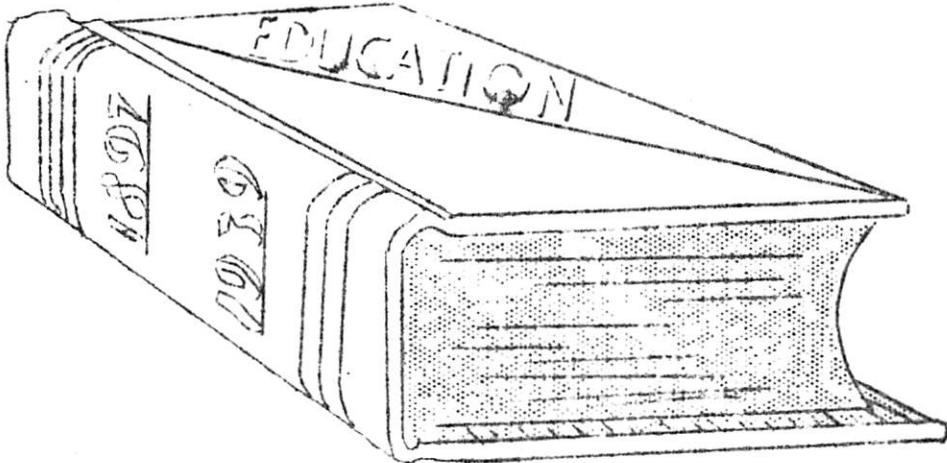

At the latest report approximately 105 member of Company 4792 have signed to go home or transfer to the Seventh Corps Area --- the expired enrollment of a great many add to this figure.

CHAPLAIN CURTIS

Chaplain R. E. Curtis gave a lecture, with colored films, on the State History of Utah to approximately 150 members of the company on Monday, January 23rd.

On January 27th., Chaplain Curtis lectured and conducted a "camp-sing."

EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! ---
Hobart Knox has at last purchased an upper-plate of false teeth.
(Hobart's meatless days are over)

TRAVELING LIBRARY

A new Traveling Library was received by the Camp Educational Department on February 6th. This library contains an excellent and valuable assortment of reading materials—the books are new and just recently published.

CAMP PHOTOGRAPHS

Olin F. Coones has just prepared a complete set of photographs of our camp. These photographs were taken from the N.E., East, S.E., N.W., West, S.W., and from an aeroplane. The pictures were sent to the District Educational Adviser to be used in making a history of the Fort Douglas District, CCC.

Olin Coones was highly commended on his good photographic work.

FIRST AID

Word has just been received that twenty hours of First Aid Instruction is now required instead of fifteen.

To date seven classes have been held in First Aid. It will be possible for those leaving to obtain the necessary qualifications for a First Aid Certificate.

EDUCATION BUILDING

Tentative plans are now being made to remodel the Camp Education Building. The plans will be carried out so that the Education Department can work with the greatest efficiency and to make use of all of the waste space.

Lieut. McNamara has recently purchased two chromium writing desks and four chromium chairs for the Education Building.

CERTIFICATES

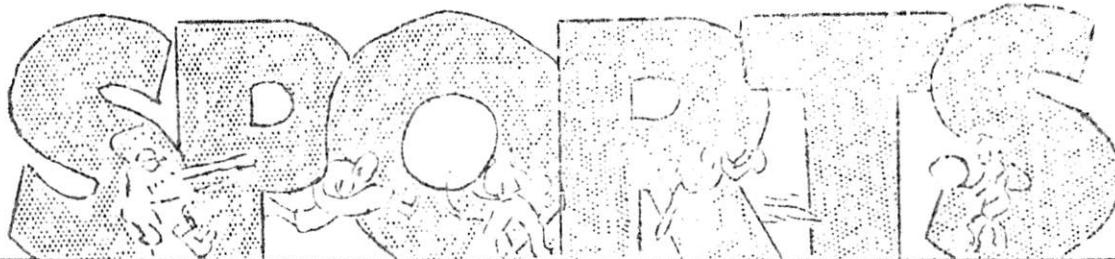

Certificates will be awarded to qualified members leaving Camp in March. Certificates of merit available are: The Proficiency Certificate for twelve satisfactory hours of instruction in one subject. The Unit Certificate for forty-four satisfactory hours of instruction in any one subject. The CCC Educational Diploma for 144 satisfactory hours of instruction in any group of subjects.

MAGAZINES CANNOT BE TAKEN OUT OF THE LIBRARY.

THE BOXING GLOVES MUST BE CHECKED OUT.

BASKETBALL

The Camp basketeers lost a close game to the Heber 3rd. Ward Team on Saturday, January 28th.

A game is scheduled to be played on the Big High School Gym--- on Monday, February 20th.

COMMERCIAL TOURNAMENT

Only one camp team can enter the Heber Commercial Basketball Tournament. Twelve teams will take part in the tournament with the first game scheduled for Thursday, February 23rd. The final Championship game will be played on February 27th.

The Camp team has a favorable chance of coming out at the head of this tournament, so lets have the camp as a whole support them.

The following players will represent the Company: K. Muffett, J. Wood, J. Thurston, Joe Spotts, C. Mead, R. Smith, M. Lawson, Joe Hampton, Bill Householder and V. Gwathney.

BOXING

The boxing card scheduled for Wednesday, February 15th., at the Heber High School Gym, in which four CCC fighters were to participate, was postponed until a future date.

A boxing card is now scheduled for Saturday, February 25th. at Kamas. Jont Woods definitely has a bout and it is possible that Bert Harris, Robert Grothe, Harry Justice and Leo Hendrickson, will be matched. A tentative plan at the present time, calls for a game to be held with the winners at the Heber High School Gym.

CHAMPIONSHIP SKI JUMP

The National Ski Jumping Contest will be held Wednesday, February 22nd., at Ecker Hill in Parley's canyon. The jumps will begin at 2 P.M.

There will be three titleholders participating and the full entry list for the jumping is expected to total forty.

This is an opportunity that few will ever have again. The Ecker Hill is only twenty-eight miles north of camp and the admission should be reasonable. This meet is considered the best that has ever been held in this section of the country.

CAMP COMPETITION

The two camp basketball team are now standing even with one defeat and one loss each. The Greens took an advantage of a handicap the other night when the Skins team was short two players and won an easy victory. However, the Skins will have a chance to break even after the Commercial Tournament has been run off.

THERE WILL BE NO BASKETBALL PRACTICE DURING THE TOURNAMENT.

JOKES

K. Muffett--Did you serve this cherry pie today because it happen s to be Washington's Birthday?

Dutch--That's right.

Muff-----Well, get me his hatchet so I can cut it.

One of the Heber club ladies was walking down the street the other day with a Pekingese on a leash. Fred North had the G.I. truck up to the curb, hanging away at the engine, trying to get it started. When the lady and the tiny dog came alongside, Fred advanced and politely lifting his hat said, "Lady, could I borrow your dog for a minute?"

The lady was startled, "Why, what are you going to do with the dog? Hitch 'im up to the truck to get it started," said Fred.

The lady lost her breath. How idiotic! A little dog like that couldn't pull that big truck." "Oh, that's all right, lady." said Fred, "I gotta whip."

J. B.--"I was turned away at the theater last night because of full capacity."

Slim--"But the place was only half full."

J. B.--"Yes, but I was completely full."

Did love get Asberry down or was it because his girl friend gave him the booby????
He was doing all right Sunday!!!

K. Porter--Hey, that ladder is upside down.

Val L.--I know it. I put it that way so that I would be nearer the bottom if I should happen to fall from the top.

WHY DOES DICK WIGGINS RESENT A CAT-CALL SO MUCH?????????????????

Gal--"Married women wear wedd ing rings. Why don't married men wear something to distinguish th em from single ones?

JEW-BABY--"They do. Worried loo ks.

Pledger--You know, my uncle wa s a tight-rope expert.

Joe L.--Oh, was he a tight- rope walker?

Pledger--No, he was a vigilante in the days of cattle thieves.

Garlock--"Why don't you close yo ur eyes when I kiss you like this?"

Girl--That's simple. It would be impolite to fall asleep.

"Where'd you get that girl you were out with last night?"

Bingert--"I was driving around in the new car and picked her up."

"What new car?"

B.--"The car I bought to drive to the house I bought to put the fur niture in to put the ash trys on."

"Ash trys?"

"Yes, the ash trys I got for sell ing suits."
